401st DAILY REPORTS 1942 Prepared by Capt. F. G. Davison

16 May 1942 – 401st Bomb Squadron (H) AAF Activated at MacDill Field, Tampa, Florida under Special Order # 1 91st Bombardment Group (H). Capt. Edward P. Myers was named Commanding Officer.

31 May 1942 – Usual excitement of getting acquainted and finding out their special duties with some flying by the pilots – most of them being checked out on B-17's. Nice base – good food – nice surroundings, war at its best, here's hoping the rest of it will be half as nice. By this date 278 personnel have been assigned to the 401st Bomb Squadron.

21 June 1942 – During June at MacDill Field the Squadron was under a strict OTC for Combat Crews and Maintenance Crews. Making for a general shakedown assignment to crews, Maintenance started on a 24 hour basis, the crews working on an airplane until it was completely finished and ready to fly. The pilots were checked out on the airplane participated in local transition flights made practice takeoffs and landing and went on frequent cross-country flights. Some submarine patrols were made out into the gulf.

22 June 1942 – Squadron transferred to Walla Walla Army Air Base, Walla Walla , Washington. Life starts at Walla Walla, Washington. It's a nice little town with many beautiful residential sections. As quarters were not finished all officers secured their own billets off the post, and were extremely fortunate to find rooms with the better families of the town. The Enlisted Men were housed in new barracks – were moved around quite a bit but finally settled down to a regular round of activity. Squadron's maintained their own mess halls and how those boys were fed. We officers ate most of our meals with them and raised quite a howl when we were forced to eat at the Officer's Mess when it was completed the latter part of our stay there. A few Beer Busts were had and appreciated by all those present and missed by those who stayed away. The outstanding thing about any bust of course is the customary soft ball game between the officers and the enlisted men. Both games ended in the officers coming out on top the victors. Inter-department volleyball –softball – basketball games and a few softball games with other nearby fields helped to round the men into fine condition – this in addition to regular morning drill and calisthenics. Ground school continued for Combat Crews on aircraft recognition – gunnery – radio procedure and maintenance, oxygen, its use etc. and such allied subjects which were found to be of service to them in their chosen work. Pilots continued in their work of becoming acquainted with their airplanes flying them both day and night. No cross-countries were flown early in the training schedule as only one navigator was then assigned to the squadron. The Bombardiers too came late in the training period and not many practice bombs were dropped due to lack of airplanes. The classes were opened up to include these late arrivals and Navigation classes were held regularly and the Bombardiers were in the Bomb Trainer quite a bit. The gunners received only low altitude practice of ground targets with no high altitude air-to-air gunnery. Squadron continued to receive and get rid of personnel with specialists reporting for duty from all the schools.

30 June 1942 – By the end of June another 71 personnel had been assigned.

6 July 1942 – Eight Bombardiers are assigned to the Squadron.

20 July 1942 – Four Navigators are assigned to the Squadron.

31 July 1942 – By the end of July 98 additional personnel have been assigned to the Squadron.

1 August 1942 – The Squadron is transferred from Walla Walla Army Airfield, Walla Walla, Washington to Baker Field, Redmond, Oregon for training per VOCO 91st Bomb Group (H) Temporary. This started fourteen days of new experiences. The Squadron furnished all personnel for an air base and all personnel were quartered in a CCC camp. Pretty setting with buildings all around two nice parade grounds. Camp complete in all details even with laundry which was run by some of the men who grew tired of waiting on the overtaxed facilities of the local laundry at Redmond. The first night was taken up by establishing guard details and posts, not much sleep for the C.O. and the Intelligence Officer. Every one around seemed war conscious and wanted us to furnish a guard detail for the town's water supply piped in from a mountain stream – this would have been a fine detail for some of the men for there was good fishing there – however no personnel could be spared. We did however supply guards for the Gasoline Tanks in the town from which we drew our supply for the planes. The townspeople greeted us with open arms and Capts. Myers and Davison attended two meetings of the Town Fathers- the ladies Auxiliary put on a dance for the men and brought girls from all around. We, of course supplying the transportation and incidentally the music for we were able to borrow instruments for our talented crew from the High School Band. This band of ours also participated in a bond rally at Bend, Oregon and succeeded in selling quite a few bonds and were quite the attraction at a special dance held thereafter for the bond buyers. The Mayor and his council were constant visitors at the base and the Squadron played host to them at a grand and glorious Beer Bust at which they were the honored guests and all concerned learned many new and glowing ditties before the evening was over. It can honestly be said that the 401st was one of the best goodwill offerings ever made by the Army to the Cicilian Population for the Squadron worked hard, played hard and at all times had the respect of the entire community.

Ground School schedules were strenuous covering all subjects in Intelligence – Navigation – Bombing – Gunnery – Radio – code both blinker and radio together with a lot of day and night flying with practice missions planned in cooperation with Operations and Intelligence. Few planes were available – two were cracked up on landing – no one seriously hurt but the field was condemned and our trip was cut short. Communications put in the teletype to keep us in constant touch with Group Headquarters and field phones connected all guard posts with the Guard room. Much time was given over to drilling and exercise with formal guard mounts staged each day. The Squadron profited by this trip away from the Group for it proved it could operate as a separate unit and the morale was very high. Mutual respect was the key word.

2 August 1942 through 6 August – Usual AB activities.

14 August 1942 – Squadron moved back to Walla Walla, Washington – movement made with incident.

23 August 1942 – The best of friends must part for a while – Air echelon departs for its staging duties and to get those new airplanes we've been promised; See you later boys!!!

24 August – Off we go to an unknown destination - Squadron entrained for unknown destination.
24 August 1942 through 18 August 1942 – Enroute to unknown destination by train – good time was had by all good food lots of fun Morale wonderful. Air Echelon goes by Air Ferry to Gowen Field, Boise, Idaho from Walla Walla. Washington.

26 August 1942 – 2nd Lts. Brown, Green, Freihofer and Franf assigned and joined Squadron. 2nd Lts. Benny, Traeger, Moeller and Vanderslice transferred out of Squadron.

27 October 1942 – Most of Air Echelon left by train to report to unknown destination leaving behind the following: Capts. Myers and Lasselle, 1st Lts. Bernhart, Bloodgood, Carroll, Eanes, English, Harris, Hosman, Larsen, McLean, Swais, and O'Neill, 2nd Lts. Allen, Adams, Bamber, Brunn, Buck, Cain, Carmichael, Conner, Schwendiman, Brown, Freihofer, and Frank, T/S Quarles, S/S Bacon, Burti, Goldstein, Haynes, Thompson, Sgts. Gilroy, Cottrell, Lee, Taylor, Zeeck, Cpls. Buchanan, Steel and Tyler.

29 August 1942 – Ground echelon arrives at Fort Dix Staging Area at 4:00 AM. Little do we know what confronts us. We are introduced to our quarters – look as if all dirt for the past century was picked up and dumped into the barracks for the EM and the Officers were quartered in a former guard house – dirt everywhere - Everyone busy all day cleaning up the mess checking up on what was expected of us getting equipment making up endless rosters answering roll call after roll call. The poor cooks and KPs worked all through the night to get the cook house clean enough to cook in – and the mess hall respectable enough to feed American troops in.

30 August 1942 through 31 August 1942 – Staging area duties.

1 September 1942 – More staging area duties at Fort Dix. First trainload of Air Echelon arrives Bangor, Maine at 2015 Hours.

2 September 1942 – Air Echelon left behind at Walla Walla, Washington on August 27 arrives at Bangor, Maine.

3 September 1942 through 9 September 1942 – Air Echelon performs usual activities in connection with becoming acquainted with the new planes and getting proper equipment.

4 September 1942 – Entrained from Fort Dix for New York point of embarkation arrived at 1930 hours. Put on the Queen Mary. The EM went half into state rooms on "B" deck and half on the Sun Deck and we were quite surprised to find that they were to sleep on deck turn about. Everyone issued "Chow Passes." Every thing was secret about our arrival on board the ship and once on board you could not get off.

5 September 1942 – Embarked for unknown destination from New York Point of Embarkation 1500 hours on HMS Queen Mary destination unknown but the bets were down on landing in England. Our first lesson in security – left port in broad day light with all hands on deck waving goodbye and every whistle blowing to call attention to the fact that a slightly overcrowded transport was leaving the safety of the port to put to sea.

6 September 1942 through 10 September 1942 – At sea on HMS Queen Mary. Our first introduction to British wartime food - - - Rifles issued to EM each nicely covered with cosmoline and a very acute shortage of wiping cloths. Nice smoothe crossing no alerts and only two days of poor weather.

9 September 1942 – 1st Lt. Joseph (NMI) Bernhart, died in Morristown, New Jersey Hospital as result of airplane accident at Morristown, New Jersey.

11 September 1942 – Arrived at Gourick, Scotland at 1300 hours, stayed on board until next morning. My Scotland looks pretty the little town looks like a cardboard town under a Christmas tree.

12 Septenber 1942 – Disembarked at Gourick, Scotland 0930 hours. Entrained 1130 hours enroute to unknown destination. Heading South and East fed about four times enroute by the canteen workers tea and English meat pies. 1st Lt. Earl F. Riley assigned and joined air echelon.

13 September 1942 – Arrived at Airbase at Kimbolton, England at 0200 hours. First taste of powdered eggs very good then. Advance party had made everything ready for us our quarters were comfortable – what a long walk from the mess hall to our huts.

13 September through 6 October 1942 – With Air Echelon at Bangor, Maine –Usual activities in getting other new planes, equipment and instructions for trip across to join Ground Echelon – this of course includes the job of flying the Atlantic Ocean with some of the Navigators using it as their first real cross-country hop. All but Capt Lasselle made it OK. The men lost in his accident will be found in regular log.

14 September 1942 – Slept late – had a look at the camp – our introduction to a dispersed airdrome. Easy day to allow everyone to rest up from the long stretch of traveling.

15 September 1942 through 30 September 1942 – Usual Airbase activities – plus ground school for all personnel – gas courses – radio courses – lots of foot soldiering, manual of arms and general duties area guarded at night – usual growing pains when four organizations are called upon to act a single group unit – most of it staraightened out without and harm except a few hurt egos by those who did not get that particular job. It was learned on September 14 1942 that Captain Joseph Bernhart died as the result of a plane crash near Morristown, New Jersey.

1 October 1942 through 2 October 1942 – Usual Airbase activities.

3 October 1942 – It was learned that Capt. Dale Lasselle's plane crashed enroute from Gander to Prestwick, Scotland killing all but two of those aboard. Capt. George C. Wassell, Medical Officer, 1st Lt. R. N. Allen, Navigator, !!st Lt. Lenord l. Koebel, Bombardier, Sgt R. J. Vaughn, Cpl John n. Gibson, and Pvt Justin C. Hamblin were killed. Injured were Cpl. Leon R. Harrison and PFC Korman E. Wickes. This A/C crashed about noon October 3, 1942 while flying through fog near Cusherdall, North Ireland.

4 October 1942 through 5 October 1942 – Usual Airbase activities.

6 October 1942 – The first planes of the Air Echelon arrived at Kimbolton bringing with them Major E. P. Myers, 1st Lts. Eanes, Hosman, O'Neill, Larsen, Bloodgood, English, Carroll, 2nd Lts. Adams, Anderson, Arnkil, Barr, Rrown, M. E., Brown, R. R., Buck, Bush, Cain, Carper, Connor, Corson, Frank, Freihofer, Mendel, Smith and Tabor, T/S Quarles, Simmons, S/S Thompson, NL, Goldstein, Haynes, Bacon, Sgts. Cottrell, Zeeck, Otto, Byrdic, Dalterio, Damron, Taylor, Cpls. Kinf, Steele, Tyler, Sumpter, Howard, Lancaster, Ade, Pfcs.Zeglen, Bagwell, Borostowski, Hennessey, Tomek, Ferris, Pvts. Smith, Youell, Gearhart, Slominski, Stefula and Davis. They sure looked good to us and were welcomed by the ground crews. Such loving care no new planes ever received as was lavished on them by their respective crews – new life in the squadron Also arriving by air 2nd Lt R. S. Brunn.

7 October 1942 through 10 October 1942 – Usual Airbase activities.
Lots of fun breaking the air echelon in on British customs and expressions. They went thru a series of indoctrination lectures. Ground school went on full blast for every branch of the squadron.

11 October 1942 – 1st Lt. Swais brought in his plane with 2nd Lt Bamber, Carmicchael, Green, S/S Burti, Sgts. Gilroy Velasquez, Cpl Buchanan, PFC. Gauze, Pvt. Fisher aboard.

13 October 1942 – Our first replacement crew: 2nd Lts. Beasley, Diedering, Dreisbach, Chubb, S/S Schaeffer, Rupert, Sgts. Franklin, Sams, Cadle, Schippang assigned and joined Squadron.

14 October 1942 – The organization moved from Kimbolton to Bassingbourne with the 91st Bomb Group. The move was made by truck convoy over a distance of 30 miles and time of arrival was 1830 hours. The Air Echelon brought over the planes.

15 October 1942 – Major Myers relieved of command and made Operations Officer of the 91st Bomb Group and Capt. Aycock assigned and joined as C.O. per VOCO 91st Bomb Group. 1st Lts. Riley, Harris and 2nd Lts. Schwenddiman and Ashinhurst, T/S Kirk, S/S Dobson, Sgt Lee, Cpls. Snyder and Ward arrived with the last of the new planes.

17 October 1942 – Capt. Felton transferred from Squadron.

21 October 1942 – 1st Lt. Brecht transferred fron Squadron

24 October 1942 – Seven planes took off led by Capt. Aycock with 1st Lts. Bloodgood, Eanes, Corson, Carroll, English and Swais. Thirty bombs were dropped in this high altitude practice mission.

31 October 1942 – Five planes piloted by Capt. Aycock, 1st Lts. Eanes, Corson, English, and Riley took off and fired 8,500 rounds on a practice gunnery mission. Capt Walker transferred in from 324th Bomb Squadron.

484 Aborted
The Squadron supplied 5 of the 12 aircraft furnished by the Group. A/C #484 piloted by Lt J. W. Carroll did not go over enemy territory as it was forced to return early due to failure of #2 engine. Due to the failure of Lt. Col. Lawrence's aircraft to get to the target Capt. Aycock led the raid which was fairly successful. Heavy flak in a moderate amount was encountered in the target area.

About 20 enemy aircraft hit the formation which by then had been reduced to seven aircraft. The opposition was rugged and counted for the first casualty for the Squadron as Capt Aycock was struck in the left leg by a 30 Cal. Bullet

FLYIMG: Mission to St. Nazaire, France

The Squadron supplied 2 of 14 (13 over target) aircraft furnished by the Group. Both aircraft went over the target and successfully bombed the pin point objective. Aircraft #447 piloted by Lt Swais with Col. Wray led the Group and was the first over the target the flak at the target was the heaviest experienced by the Group to date but in spite of this no aircraft were lost although several crewmembers were seriously injured, and one Bombardier was killed. S/S Herbert E. Fisher of A/C #447 was unfortunate enough to have the lower part of his right ear shot off. This raid was commonly called the suicide raid as it was at low altitude instead of high altitude and subjected the Group to both light and heavy flak. The aircraft just pushed through one barrage after another and everyone feels that the Group was fortunate to come through with its aircraft.

The reports of returning crews were glowing with reference to bombing results as the locks were reported blown up. The PRU photos, however disproved these reports proving that 1,000 pound bombs were not quite heavy enough to put the lock gates out of commission. Heavy flak on the bombing run was also a good deterrant and sighting may have been a bit erratic. No enemy aircraft were encountered on this trip.

13 November 1942 – Lt. Davison reported for duty from DS to Naval Recognition School at Squires Gate. GROUND SCHOOL: All combat officers one hour on Photo Interpretation. All pilots and Co-pilots one hour on Standard beam approach. All combat officers one hour on A/C recognition. FLYING: None.

14 November 1942 – PERSONNEL CHANGES: None. GROUND SCHOOL: For those not on mission. Enlisted combat personnel one half hour on aircraft recognition. Combat officers one half hour on blinker code. FLYING: Mission to La Palice, France. Our aircraft in raid, 459 piloted by Lt J. W. Carroll did not get off due to mechanical failures, and 452 piloted by Major Myers was forced to turn back at Beachy Head at an altitude of 19,000 ft at 1220 hours due to failure of oxygen system in tail gunner's position and resulting freezing of tail gunner Bagwell's hands. Other A/C on raid found target 10/10th overcast and attacked St. Nazaire only encountering 4 or 5 E/A and reporting moderate flak.

15 November 1942 - Capt. Aycock relieved from duty as Squadron Commander and Major Myers assigned Squadron Commander per special orders of 91st Bomb Group. PFCs. Kohn and Simon transferred from Squadron. GROUND SCHOOL: None. FLYING: None.

16 November 1942 - PERSONNEL CHANGES: None. GROUND SCHOOL: None. FLYING: Two aircraft flew locally each logging 1.5 hours.

17 November 1942 – PERSONNEL CHANGES: None. GROUND SCHOOL: None. FLYING : Mission to St. Nazaire, France.
The Squadron supplied six aircraft for the Group formation but only five of them went over the primary target dropping 50x500 lbs. Of bombs. The sixth A/C/ 527 piloted by Lt Riley was forced to turn back after it lost the formation in the overcast. Moderate amount of flak was encountered at the target which was accurate as to height but inaccurate for deflection. On the way home a very slight amount of heavy flak was seen at Vannes – this also inaccurate This was the first real brush with E/A as the formation was attacked by approximately 11 E/A which kept up a running attack on the formation from the target area to the French coast. Bombing results were reported as good although some bombs were seen to hit short of the aiming point.

536	1806	27,000 ft	10x500
797	1808	27,000 ft	10x500

RESULTS OF BOMBING: Very questionable. Hits reported at Korden, Hage, NE of Emden. However primary target was not attacked.
FLAK: Moderate heavy flak near Wilhelmshaven, meager flak in vicinity of Alte Mellum and Eckwardder horne, also Nuenberg. Heavy flak experienced at Juist Island.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: 50 E/A attacked the formation from 1745 at Heligoland, to 1845 off the Freisan Islands. Attacks were moderate, however , no E/A Coming closer than 500 yards. A flight of 8 E/A attacked the nose of our formation.
CASUALTIES: None.
CLAIMS: A/c 043 – Sgt. A. J. Rukas Me 109 destroyed.
A/C 132 – Lt. Herman (N) Me 109 destroyed.
A/C 536 – S/Sgt. H. M. Crain Me 109 destroyed.
A/C 797 _ Lt. Worley Me 109 destroyed.
A/C 797 – T/Sgt. C. L. Hughes FW 190 destroyed
SPECIAL NOTE: A/C 797 with Capt Weitzenfield as pilot, was severely
Damaged when bombs from an A/C above crashed thru the right horizontal stabilizer and sheared it off, leaving but a little less than two feet of stabilizer left on the aircraft. E/A began to pick on this A/C as it was forced out of formation by the accident. However, due to the superb flying skill of Capt. Weitzenfield, and with the assistance of the co-pilot, Lt. Berg, the A/C was able to rejoin the formation and proceed back to base with no further damage to the A/C or the personnel.

RESULTS OF BOMBING: Formation recalled before bombs were dropped. High overcast prevented selection of a target of opportunity. One crew reported large column of black smoke coming thru overcast after bombs were dropped in the vicinity of Rheine.
FLAK: Meager to moderate flak reported.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: About 35 E/A composed of FW 190s, Me 109s and some Me 110s attacked our formation, but did not press home these attacks. E/A came in in pairs and three at a time.
CASUALTIES: None.
CLAIMS: S/Sgt J. P. McBride – FW 190 Destroyed.
SPECIAL NOTE: A/C #763 received heavy E/A attacks causing much damage. Control cables suffered the most damage, and the aircraft was forced to leave the formation about ten miles off the English coast. Pilot gave orders to abandon the ship, and the following men bailed out: Lt. J. P. McAvoy, Lt J. M. Hexum, T/Sgt. J. B. Wenninghoff, S/Sgts. A. Beluschak, D. W. Millard, P. C. Bara, D. L. Hayes, F/O Pitts, the Pilot and Lt A. E. Weineth, the Copilot, were able to land at a nearby RAF Airdrome.

679	1140	28,000 ft	10x500
591	1201	28,000 ft	10x500

RESULTS OF BOMBING: Target believed to be hit. Dark brown smoke seen coming from the target area.
FLAK: Meager on the way to target. Flak very heavy and intense and accurate at the target---- seemed to literally fill the sky. Meager, inaccurate flak reported on the way out.
ENEMY FIGHTERS: 30 to 40 E/A were seen in the vicinity of our formation and were in sight for some 77 minutes. Attacks were medium in intensity. E/A not being as eager to press home attacks as usual.
CASUALTIES: T/Sgt. F. J. Parkerson, .30 Caliber slug in right arm. Lt McAvoy, frozen hand incurred after passing out because of lack of oxygen.
CLAIMS: None.
SPECIAL NOTE: A/C #679 had severe engine trouble just before reaching the enemy coast. F/O Pitts, the Pilot, deciding that the safety of his crew, ship, and himself, depended on staying with the formation for protection, elected to do just that. Ordering the crew to jettison the bombs and salvo all loose equipment, he managed to stay with the formation for a while, but gradually dropped back. His A/C then began to receive constant and concentrated attacks from E/A for over an hour. But due to skillful flying he was able to evade destruction, bring his A/C safely across the channel and land at an English base on the coast. Lt. Hicks, the Bombardier, was just starting operations again after having been recuperating from the effects of a ditching in the North Sea one month previously.

(Transcriber's Note: I was unable to make a readable copy of the first page of the January 1944 Daily Reports. I was not even able to read the page on the micro-film reader. The January 1944 Daily Reports will begin with 4 January 1944. Since all Mission reports are grouped at the end of the month, on the Micro-film, it appears that the 401st Squadron did not fly any Missions on the first three days of January 1944.)

BOMBING RESULTS: Unobserved, dropped on PFF.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: None encountered.
FIGHTER SUPPORT: Good, enroute to the target and over the target. Lack of fighter support on the way back was due, undoubtedly, to variation in the route.
FLAK: Enroute to target, meager, inaccurate AA fire reported from vicinities of Gilze Rijen and Tilburg. Meager, accurate AA fire was reported from vicinities of Roermond, Aachen, and Duron. AA fire at the target was meager to moderate and inaccurate for our aircraft.. On the return journey, meager, inaccurate AA fire was reported from the vicinities of Hochheim, Koblenz and Aachen. From this point our formations flew directly over the Ruhr, encountering an intense barrage plus continuous tracking fire.

BOMBING RESULTS: Leipzig Group: Crews reported smoke being seen for about 30 minutes after leaving target. Some crews reported direct hits in target area. Bombing generally good. Aschersleben Group: Crews reported good bombing results on target of opportunity, believed to be Oschersleben. Large explosions and fires reported by crews.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: Reports varied from 2 to 25 FW 190s and Me 109s with a few Me 110s. There was only one direct attack on this formation by one black FW 190. This is E/F opposition encountered by Liepzig Group. The following account was rendered by the Aschersleben Group. From 10 to 15 E/A encountered, most of these were FW 190s, with 4 Me 109s and one Me 110. These planes used haze to good advantage in making their attacks. Four FW 190s flying a P-47 formation made some very rigorous attacks on this formation.
FIGHTER ESCORT: Better than briefed for the Liepzig Group. Very close support given by P-51s, etc. Fighter escort for the Aschersleben Group was fair, and described as spotty. There were intermittent periods with no support visible.
FLAK: Enroute to the target, the Liepzig Group observed AA fire coming from vicinities of Egmond, Amsterdam, Magdeburg, Dessaui, and Wittenberg. At the target, moderate to intense and accurate AA fire was experienced by our A/C. For the Aschersleben Group one 5 flare Rocket was seen bursting at our altitude at the target. Its color was brilliant red.
CASUALTIES: A/C 736 – Lt. John R. Simonson – minor flak wound on left shoulder.

073-----Missing In Action----------
BOMBING RESULTS: Reported as good. Bursts were seen in Hangar area of airdrome. A target of opportunity was attacked.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: 20 to 30 FW 190s, Me 109s, and a few Me 110s were sighted West of Hannover. The main formation of this group received no attacks but the Composite Group did. Attacks were pressed home on the latter for a period of 30 minutes.
FIGHTER ESCORT: Due to considerable change in route, complete fighter cover was not available. Crews, however, praised the fighter cover which was rendered.
FLAK: Enroute to the target, meager, inaccurate Aa fire was observed coming from vicinities of Egmond and Linden. At Bielefield AA fire was meager to moderate and rather accurate, Some ground rockets were reported at vicinity of Osnabruck.
CASUALTIES: See Missing In Action Paragraph.

428	1408 hrs	22,000 ft	6 x 500
958	1416 hrs	20,200 ft	12 x 500

BOMBING RESULTS: The original target was Oschersleben, Germany but due to heavy undercast the formations turned back and bombed Bunde, a target of opportunity.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: 50 E/A, including Me110's, Me 109's, FW 190's, Me 410's and a few Ju 88's were encountered for a period of half an hour. Me 110's attacked from 11 to 2 O'clock high coming in in-line abrest. The High Group was the first attacked , then the lead group. Single Engine fighter attacks were pressed close. It is believed the twin-engine fighters were intended to draw away our fighter support, the single-engine fighters then taking advantage of the unescorted B-17's.
FIGHTER ESCORT: Good, close support until just before the target.
FLAK: Most of the AA fire observed by our A/C was out of range for our ships. The only accurate fire encountered was at a point midway between Osnabruck and Munster.
CASUALTIES: S/Sgt. John R. Paget from A/C 812 froze his feet.

A/C 027: Lt. J. R. Dempsey flew with this 322nd Squadron ship.
MISCELLANEOUS: A/ C 929 piloted by Lt. F. C. Ammann, returned early. This ship suffered enemy fighter attacks which wounded the tail gunner and the pilot. It was forced to turn back from 5000 N – 0525 E. The # 2 engine went out, started smoking and couldn't be completely feathered. As a result, this ship dropped out of formation and lost altitude.

3 March 19 44 – NO CHANGE IN PERSONNEL.
MISSION TO WILHELMSHAVEN (area) The original target was in the Berlin area.
This Squadron provided nine crews and seven ships for this mission.
A/C 975 and 506 were supplied by the 324th Squadron.

869	----------Abortive sortie----------
506	----------Abortive sortie----------
144	----------Not dispatched----------

BOMBING RESULTS: Unobserved, on target of opportunity not definitely identified, but believed to be Wilhelmshaven area.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: None were sighted or encountered.
FIGHTER ESCORT: The fighter support was very good. The rendezvous was kept with first group as briefed. The escort stayed with us even when radical changes in route were made.
FLAK: Complete undercast prevented identification of localities putting up Aa fire, but all AA fire was reported as meager to moderate and inaccurate. The bursts were black and white.
CASUALTIES: None.

MISCELLANEOUS: Although the First Wing was recalled, it made a bomb run by PFF on what is believed to be the Wilhelmshaven Area.
A/C 812, 079 and 869 did not see the PFF flares and therefore did not drop their bombs with the rest of the formation.
A/C 506 had a supercharger out and couldn't keep up with formation. As a result it turned back at a point 5418N-0847E. On the way back it jettisoned its bombs on a point 5418N-0841E.

4 March 1944 – Pvt. Milton Rallis transferred to 1st Station Complement Squadron. Pfc. Edward M. J. Wilson assigned and joined from Hq. 91st Bomb Group.
MISSION TO COLOGNE, GERMANY.
Note: Adverse weather conditions forced abandonment of attack on briefed targets in Berlin Area. However, bombing was carried out on Target of Opportunity believed to be Cologne.
This Squadron supplied 9 crews and 8 A/C for the mission. A/C 027 was provided by 322nd Squadron.

6 March 1944 – MISSION TO HOPPEGARTEN, GERMANY.
Three crews missing in action.
The primary target in this case was the ball bearing Works at Erkner, Germany. 10?10 undercast prevented an attack on the primary.
This Squadron provided eleven crews and eight aircraft. The 324th Squadron supplied A/C 975 and 128, while the 322nd Squadron supplied A/C 982.

BOMBING RESULTS: Generally unobserved. PFF bombing on what is believed to be Hoppegarten, Germany.
ENEMY AIRCRAFT: As many as 100 reported, including Me 410s, Me 110s,Me 109s and FW 190s. This formation was first attacked by Twin Engine E/A, then by Single Engine E/F. Masses of

E/F Attacked our formations all at once, presumably in an attempt to overpower the firepower of this Combat Wing. Some instances of rockets being fired at our formation were reported.
FIGHTER SUPPORT: The escort was very good with the exception of just before the target and just afterwards. Cover over the target was good but our fighters seemed to be heavily outnumbered.
FLAK; En route to the target moderate accurate AA fire was experienced from the vicinities of Lingen, Rheine and Osnabruck. Meager, inaccurate AA fire was reported from the vicinities of Diepholz, Nienburg and Celle. Some crews reported meager and inaccurate AA fire at the target.
CASUALTIES: None.

061	1320 hrs	23,700 ft	10 x 1000 & 32 M47 IB's

BOMBING RESULTS: Undercast forced attack on secondary by PFF, with unobserved results.
ENEMY AIIRCRAFT: Varying reports of up to 50 single engine E/F, including FW 190s and Me 109s, encountered over the target. Only one concerted attack was made on this formation. Our escort hit the enemy A/C before they could make a large concentrated attack forcing the one pass to be made in small numbers. Even during this pass, our fighter support was mixing it with the enemy and followed those through the formation.

FIGHTER SUPPORT: fighter support was excellent. It was particularly effective over the target for a large number of E/A were encountered and many dogfights ensued. See preceeding paragraph.
FLAK: Enroute to the target, meager, inaccurate AA fire was reported from vicinities of Quackenbruck, Vecha and Nienburg. White bursts were reported from Vechta and Lenbrusk.
CASUALTIES: Ten Officers and men Missing In Action.

Operational Loading List this date to_____.
TRANSCRIBER'S NOTE: The hard copy of this loading list was very poor quality and I was unable to make out the ship numbers as well as many of the serial numbers of the crew members. In some cases even the names were illegible. I kept referring to other loading lists to get the crew member names. It is terribly time consuming as many crews had replacement crew members for this mission.

			(Dropped on Zehelenick 5259N 1320 E.)
Lt. Guldner	851	1011	26,000	8 x 500 & 2 M17

BOMBING RESULTS: The 91st "A" group flying with the 1st "A" Combat Wing bombed the primary with good results. The 91st "B" group flying with the 1st "B" Combat Wing dropped its bombs approximately 8 miles East of Berlin due to mechanical error in Intervelometer.

ENEMY AIRCRAFT: Our "A" group was attacked by 50-75 Me 410s in the vicinity of Muntz Lake. The attacks were very concentrated and vicious and continued to the Strausberg area. During the first attack 4 of our aircraft were hit and knocked out of formation. The crews report from 6 to 10 E/A went down in flames.

FIGHTER SUPPORT: Poor over and around the target area.

FLAK: AA fire was intense and accurate at the target. Flak was observed from Lubeck on the way in and from Hamburg on the way out.

REMARKS: Aircraft 891 was last seen to peel out of formation at 5319 N and 1334 E after dropping its bombs. Aircraft 954 had its oxygen system out at the IP – it then went down to 13,000 feet North of Berlin and bombed Zehelenick. Obtained friendly fighters for escort and caught up with the formation as it went out over the North Sea. The ball turret, radio and waist gunners were unconsious.

29 June 1944 – The following Officers and EM assigned and joined from AAF Station 112: 2nd Lt. Harold A. Packard, Jr., 2nd Lt. James H. Fox, F/O Francis X. Quinn, F/O Richard P. Cusson, S/Sgt. Clifton L. Grimm, Jr., S/Sgt. Oliver G. Sanders, Jr., Sgt. Granville C. Mouchins, Sgt. Charles E. Walker, Jr., Sgt. Mervin Gerstein, Cpl. Nelson Richardson.

30 June 1944 – Usual station activities. This day terminates one of the busiest months for our outfit, twenty two missions in one month. This figure shows the tremendous progress that our 8th Air Force has made in one year. A year ago this month, 10 missions a month was the record and 21 A/C group formations were the usual. Today our group puts up as many as 54 aircraft on a mission.

The following Awards were presented to Officers and Enlisted Men of this organization.

Transcribed by Merle L. Choffel

Transcribers Note: The copies of the Daily Reports for the month of July 1944 that I was able to make from the microfilm were of such poor quality that I was unable to read anything on them except for the following entries. There were 11 pages of daily reports that were completely illegible.

2 July 1944 – Major Morris R. Ford assigned from 381st.
401st Daily Reports =Prepared by 1st Lt. Charles Albidress

4 July 1944 – 1st Lt. Joseph R. Shackleton promoted to Capt.

11 July 1944 – Maj. James McPartlin transferred to Casual Pool, 12th RCD. Major Ford replaced Maj McPartlin as CO.

15 July 1944 – F/O Capparell promoted to 2nd Lt.

END OF JULY 1944

401st Daily Reports – Prepared by: 1st Lt. Charles Albidress

Transcribed by: Merle Choffel

1 August 1944 – This was the beginning of an eventful month for the Squadron, a month in which our unit excelled in number of sorties and lack of abortions.

4 August 1944 –Maj. McPartlin , our former Squadron C. O., left today. He was one the original flying officers and came over with us on the boat that fatal day.
Our Squadron made the 200th Mission ; the target – Peenemunde.
Hallelujah! Today completes the 23rd month of service in the E. T. O. for the outfit, a long time to be away from the U. S. A.

5 August 1944 – S/Sgt. Norman V. Pero, who was a POW for sometime, escaped from France and returned to the Squadron. The officers got together and had a little party at the Pilot's house. It was some shindig, with plenty of liquor and beer. There were only three stray females there so that it was considered a stag party. Quite a number of us got pleasantly intoxicated and a good time was had by all.
S/Sgt. Jack P. Gaffney, crewchief, was awarded the Bronze Star for engineering achievments on his ship 812. This ship completed 44 missions on its original engines. After changing the engines, it completed 8 more missions, when it was shot down.

8 August 1944 – The Squadron got "stood down" today, so a big meeting was held at the Post Theatre to which all officers and men, both staff and flying, attended at 1330 hours. Capt. "Soft-hearted" john Davis called the gang to attention as "Little Chief"Lord, the CO, and Col. Terry walked in. Maj Lord gave an introductory talk lauding the efforts of the ground personnel, and the efficiency of the Squadron. Lt."Little Albie" Albidress, that's me, then gave a short talk on the last seven missions, hoping to show the groud grippers how we wer doing. Next, Col. Terry gave us a little pep talk in which he complemented our Squadron for its good record. Finally, we got around to one of the main objects of the session – the presentation of awards.

13 August 1944 – This was the last day of our operational record. Engineering chalked up 49 missions with no abortions and 479 sorties. Operations chalked up 48 missions and no abortions.

DIARY FOR SEPTEMBER 1944

1 September 1944 – 2nd Lts. Chouinard, Gehret and Silverstein were promoted to 1st Lts. Capt. Thissell transferred to Casual Pool, 12th RCD, one of the best Lead Officers we have had in this Squadron.

3 September 1944 – In order to cut down the Squadron to T. O. strength, 11 1st Lts., 22nd Lts. and 57 Enilisted Men were transferred to Casual Pool 12th RCD.

4 September 1944 – F/O's Martin L. Bulion and Henry S. House were discharged and sworn in as 2nd Lts. 2nd Lt. Brewer promoted to 1st Lt.

5 September 1944 – A dance was given for our Enlisted Men at Red Cross Bldg. By Special Services and the Red Cross. This was Strictly a 401st Dance.

11 September 1944 – This was one of our sad days for our C. O. was leaving. The "Little Chief" completed his alotted number of Missions and received his orders for a 30 day leave at home. We got together and gave a little farewell dinner for him at Number One Mess. Among those present were Capt. Davis (Soft Hearted John), Operations, Lt. "Temper" Perada (Operations), Major "Moustechio Kid"Reame, Major Richie Bettis (Executive), Lt. "star" Hardister, Lt. "Big Mike" Rheam (Mickey Man), Capt. Evers, Capt Evans (Engineering) and Lt. "Little Albie" Albidress, that's me. After a fried chicken dinner, we topped the evening off by having wine and some speeches by each one present. An orange fight ensued from which yours truly managed to escape unscathed. Among those present was Lt. Hawkins.

12 September 1944 – Col. Lord left this day and Capt. "Soft Hearted John"Davis took over command of the Squadron.

16 September 1944 – Lts. Richard Pressey and John Hamilton and F/O Paul Pinkerton escaped internment and rejoined the Squadron. They were MIA since 27 May 1944.

17 September – The big day for which were all waiting for arrived.

The second Anniversary of our Group here in the ETO was celebrated by an all day party on the base. We had a regular civilian carnival, outside sport competitions, picnic lunch, free beer all over and three big dances, one big one for the EM at Hangar "C" and one at Mess No, 2 and one at Mess No. 1 for the officers. There were around 2000 guests here so that a good time was had by all. The biggest surprise of all was the orderliness and good conduct of Officers and men alike on this day. This was one event which will never be equalled by any affair in this district.

19 September 1944 – Lts. Lee Louis and John Whitney, MIA since February 1944 escaped from continent of Europe and rejoined the Squadron.

20 September 1944 – This was a big day for the Squadron, our team won the Softball Championship on the base. The play off was between the 323rd Squadron and us. It was a hard fight, but with 1st Sgt. Irak in there driving, we came out on top.

25 September 1944 – Lt. Arhur G. Foster, MIA since 14 October 1943, escaped from the continent and rejoined the Squadron.

30 September 1944 – Capt. Gauthier, Capt. Moburg and Lts. Kuligowski and Mannchen were transferred to Casual Pool, 70th Repl. Pool. These men comprised one of the outstanding lead crews of our Squadron and were instrumental in making a success of many of our missions. T/Sgt. Jack Gaffney, M/Sgt. C. O. Pierce and M/Sgt. L. C. Pierce Were awarded the Bronze Star individually for outstanding work in Maintenance of their planes.

HAS ANYBODY SEEN REDLINE? That is the question being asked by everybody in the 401st. Redline is a pooch of unknown ancestry which was adopted and brought over by the boys from the states. Redline has been AWOL for two months so it is thought that he has found some love life at some other base and therefore does not care to return. Too bad he missed the celebration on the 17th as he would have liked it. Pinch-hitting for Redline we have a little brown stupid goat, parents unknown, who has become quite attached to (illegible.) (Last line of paragraph also illegible.)

27 September 1944 – Mission to Cologne, Germany

On the 27th of September we dispatched 12 A/C and crews to attack an synthetic oil plant situated about 8 miles SSE of Cologne.
A/C 970 piloted by 1st Lt. G. E. Good,
A/C 375 piloted by 1st Lt. B. F. Allison,
A/C 316 piloted by 1st Lt. C. M. Buchanan,
A/C 609 piloted by 1st Lt. S. E. Rice,
A/C 102 piloted by 1st Lt. H. E. Garner,
A/C 629 piloted by 1st Lt. Dick F. Gibson,
A/C 979 piloted by 1st Lt. H> A. Packard,
A/C 832 piloted by 2nd Lt. T. M. Holmes,
A/C 107 piloted by 1st Lt. J. R. Lyons,
A/C 381 piloted by 1st Lt. R. O. Davies,
A/C 379 piloted by 2nd Lt. J. J. Askins,
A/C 318 piloted by 1st Lt. H. W. Chouinard, flew on this mission. Due to weather conditions, which prevented visual bombing, the marshalling yards near the center of the city were bombed by means of instruments. Flak was meager to moderate. The Group furnished “C” group of the Third Task Force. Our Squadron flew the high squadron.

7 October 1944 – Mission to Ruhland-Freiberg-Wurzen

On the 7th of October we dispatched 11 A/C and 12 crews to attack an Synthetic Oil Plant at Brux. Secondary target was Zwickau. Due to weather conditions, the Lead and Low Squadrons bombed Freiberg NE of Chemnitz, with very good results. The High Squadron bombed the town of Wurzen with fair results. Both targets were bombed visually.
A/C 754 piloted by 1st Lt. G. E. Good,
A/C 093 piloted by 1st Lt. S. E. Rice,
A/C 515 piloted by 1st Lt. H. E. Walker,

9 October 1944 – Mission to Schweinfurt

On the 9th of October our Squadron was stand down Squadron. We Furnished no A/C or crews for this mission. The target for the rest of the Group was the Kugel Fischer Bearing Works at Schweinfurt on the SW side of the city. The target has been heavily damaged before but extensive repairs have been recently noted. This, no doubt. was because Sweden had greatly reduced her export of bearings to Germany. The PFF target was the Northern end of the Marshalling Yard in the city of Schweinfurt. Due to weather conditions bombing had to be done by means of instruments. Bombing results were unobserved. Flak at the target was meager to moderate and inaccurate. Fighter support was very good. The Group furnished "B" Group of the 1st CBW. All A/C and crews returned safely.

14 October 1944 – Mission to Cologne

On the 14th of October we dispatched 12 A/C and 12 crews to attack the Marshalling Yards in Cologne.
A/C 754 piloted by 1st Lt. R. E. Hardister,
A/C 911 piloted by 1st Lt. R. R. Sullenberger,
A/C 851 piloted by 1st Lt. J. J. Askins,
A/C 035 piloted by 1st Lt. Dick F. Gibson,
A/C 324 Piloted by 1st Lt. T. M. Holmes.
A/C 678 piloted by 1st Lt. C. M. Buchanan,

A/C 883 piloted by 1st Lt. H. Neumann, Jr.,
A/C 144 piloted by 1st Lt. R. O. Davies,
A/C 984 piloted by 1st Lt. H. A. Packard, Jr.,
A/C 504 piloted by 1st Lt. H. E. Garner,
A/C 552 piloted by 1st Lt. R. H. Danekas,
A/C 293 piloted by 1st Lt. Ondrovic, flew on this mission.
Capt. John D. Davis flew in A/C 754, piloted by 1st Lt. Hardister, as Acting Commander. Our Squadron flew the lead position in the Group. The Group ffurnished the "B" Group of "B" Task Force. The target was bombed by means of instruments. Bombing results were unobserved. Flak was moderate to intense, generally inaccurate over target. The fighter support was very good. All A/C and crews returned safely.

19 October – Mission to Karlsruhe and Kreunach

On the 19th of October we dispatched 5 A/C and no crews to attack the Oil Storage Depot at Ludwigshaven. A/C 293, 911 were flown by 324th crews. A/C 093, 324, 504 were flown by 323rd crews. Due to errors the cities of Karlsruhe and Bad Kreunach were bombed by the Lead and High Squadrons. The leaders bombs and those of the Low Squadron were jettisoned est of the target. AA fire at the target was moderate and rather accurate. The Group furnished the 1st "A" Group. Fighter support was adequate. All our A/C returned.

22 October 1944 – Mission to Brunswick

On the 22nd of October we furnished 11 A/C and 12 crews to attack a Military Vehicle Factory at Brunswick. The factory was located on the south side of the city.
A/C 632 piloted by Capt. H. H. Evers, Jr.,
A/C 093 piloted by 1st Lt. S. E. Rice,
A/C 610 piloted by 1st Lt. H. E. Garner,
A/C 911 piloted by 1st Lt. R. R. Sullenberger,
A/C 293 piloted by 1st Lt. J. J. Ondrovic,
A/C 678 piloted by 1st Lt. R. N. Broughton,
A/C 883 piloted by 1st Lt. H. Neumann, Jr.,
A/C 984 piloted by 1st Lt. H. A. Packard,
A/C 504 piloted by 1st Lt. C. M. Buchanan,
A/C 144 piloted by 2nd Lt. E. J. Flanders,
A/C 035 piloted by 1st Lt. Dick F. Gibson,
A/C 324 piloted by 1st Lt. T. M. Holmes, flew on this mission.
Col. Henry W. Terry, Group C. C., flew in A/C 632, piloted by Capt. Evers, as Acting Commander. A/C 632 was furnished by the 324th Squadron. Our Squadron flew the Lead Squadron in the Group formation. The Group furnished the 1st "C" Group of the 1st Task Force. The south edge of the city was bombed by means of instrumants with unobserved results. Approximately fifty bursts of inaccurate flak was encountered at the target. Fighter support was excellent. All A/C and crews returned safely.

30 November 1944 – Mission to Zaitz

On the 30th of November we dispatched 9 A/C and 12 crews to attack the Synthetic Oil Plant outside the town of Zeitz, about 20 miles SSW of Leipzig.
A/C 174 piloted by 1st Lt. R. R. Goldsmith,
A/C 324 piloted by 1st Lt. T. M. Holmes,
A/C 610 piloted by 1st Lt. R. N. Broughton,
A/C 429 piloted by 1st Lt. S. E. Rice,
A/C 306 piloted by 1st Lt. N. K. Gehret,
A/C 678 piloted by 2nd Lt. W. T. Carter,
A/C 088 piloted by 2nd Lt. W. L. Bateman,
A/C 061 piloted by 1st Lt. J. J. Ondrovic,
A/C 643 piloted by 1st Lt. F. B. Foster, Jr.,
A/C 035 piloted by Maj. A. R. Reaume,
A/C 851 piloted by 2nd Lt. W. W. Seller, Jr., flew on this mission.
A/C 174 was furnished by the 324th Squadron. A/C 306 and 088 were furnished by the 322nd Squadron. The Squadron flew the Low Squadron in the Group formation. The Group furnished "I" Group. A visual bomb run was made on the target, results unknown. AA fire at the target moderate to intense and accurate. Fighter support was good. All A/C and crews returned safely.

11 December 1944 – Mission to Frankfurt

On the 11th of December we furnished the Low Squadron of the Group. This Group of 37 A/C furnished the "B" Group of the Combat Wing. Our target was the main marshalling yards of frankfurt. As we attacked this target PFF results were unobserved.
A/C 357 piloted by Capt. R. E. Hardister, Jr.,
A/C 324 piloted by Lt. T. M. Holmes,
A/C 036 piloted by Lt. J. J. Ondrovic,
A/C 678 piloted by Lt. W. L. Bateman,
A/C 851 piloted by Lt. W. W. Seller, Jr.,
A/C 552 piloted by Lt. M. M. Borgeson,
A/C 843 piloted bt Lt. F. B. Foster, Jr.,
A/C 504 piloted by Lt. H. L. Garner,
A/C 144 piloted by Lt. H. E. Johnson,

A/C 610 piloted by Lt. R. W. Broughton,
A/C 429 piloted by Lt. S. E. Rice, flew on this mission.
A/C 610 flown by Lt. R. W. Broughton had to abort over France due to mechanical failure. Fighter support was very good. AA fire was meager and inaccurate for our Group.

24 December 1944 – (The entire narrative about the mission flown on 24 December 1944 was illegible. In addition, the Loading Lists for that day are extremely poor copies. However, because this was a mission that many of our members recall quite vividly, I have tried my best to reconstruct it as much as possible.)

30 December 1944 – Daily History – Month of December.
(The only entry that was readable from two pages of Narrative was an entry for this date was the following as best I was able to figure it out.)

The Officers celebrated New Year's a day ahead of time.We had two big dances, one at (balance of sentence illegible.) We had two road bands which made the dancing very (balance illegible.) The high quality liquor got us (several words illegible.) very early. As a result a good time was had by all.

(Balance of narrative illegible.)

31 December 1944 – (There was no narrative describing this mission and no target for the mission in the copy I made from the microfilm. I looked up the mission for this date flown by the 322nd Bomb Squadron. The target was a communications center in Bitburg, so I assume the 401st Squadron attacked the same target on this date.)

2 January 1945 – Mission to Prum

On the 2nd of January we were stand down Squadron. One A/C, 144 was to be flown by a 323rd Squadron crew but aborted. The Group attacked the RR Marshalling Yards on the outskirts of Prum. The Low and Lead Squadrons bombed by means of instruments with their bombs falling short and slightly to the right of the target. The high Squadron bombed visually with excellent results. Meager, tracking, inaccurate AA fire was experienced betwen the I. P. and the target. Fighter support was good. The Group furnished the 1s"A" Group.
All A/C and crews returned safely.

3 January 1945 – Mission to Cologne

On the 3rd of January we dispatched 7 A/C and 12 crews to attack a R.R. Bridge at the town of Horren, nine miles west of Cologne. The secondary target was the industrial area of Cologne. The secondary target was attacked by meands of instruments with unobserved results.
A/C 174 piloted by Capt. J. B. Westwod,

Amendment to Loading List for 21 January 1945 Mission.

(The copy was very poor quality, however it appears to list 2nd Lt. Robert S. Richardson, Jr., as the Navigator on A/C 057. There was no 401st BS A/C with that tail number, so perhaps the A/C was from another Bomb Squadron. Lt. Richardson's Serial # wasO-2065916.)

2 March 1945 – Mission to Chemnitz and Jocketa

On the 2nd of March we dispatched 12 A/C and 13 crews to attack the Synthetic Oil Plant at Bohlen located about 11 miles south of Leipzig. The secondary target was the RR Marshall-ing Yards at Chemnitz. The secondary target was bombed by the Low and Lead Squadrons by means of instruments with unobserved results. Due to an instrument failure the High Squadron bombed a target of opportunity at Jocketa located about four miles NE of Plaue.The target was a junction of two main RR over a river and ravine. Results were excellent.

2 March 1945 – Mission to Chemnitz and Jocketa

On the 2nd of March we dispatched 12 A/C and 13 crews to attack the Synthetic Oil Plant at Bohlen located about 11 miles south of Leipzig. The secondary target was the RR Marshall-ing Yards at Chemnitz. The secondary target was bombed by the Low and Lead Squadrons by means of instruments with unobserved results. Due to an instrument failure the High Squadron bombed a target of opportunity at Jocketa located about four miles NE of Plaue.The target was a junction of two main RR over a river and ravine. Results were excellent.
